I remember when I had my 7th birthday and we were at Aunt Velma Dee Haydens house in St. Louis off Albert, she had me a cake with the number 7 on it. It was a very special day. My last memory of her was when I came to visit her in 2012 with my future wife. She was so happy to see me. We talked about everything that we needed to say to each other as if it was going to be our last time together. I love you mom and I will always miss you. Your oldest Son, Mr. Oliver Walker.

I remember when I graduated college, a few days later receiving a graduation card from her. I was so excited and called her to thanked her.I wanted her at my graduation but she could not make to either one. She told me I deserved the gift plus more and that she was very proud of me. She added if there was anything else she could do don't hesitate to ask her.
