Heaven has received a good man and we have lost one. We will not be able to be at the funeral as we are out town in Ms. helping Larry's brother. We are so sad that we can not be there but your family will be in our prayers. He was one of the finest Christian man that we have ever known. Always friendly and kind plus many other things He will greatly be missed. Just remember that the memories will never go away and we will see him again.
