She was a very active member of Oak Forest Church of God until diagnosed with Alzheimer's. She is survived by her daughter, Phyllis Goodwin (Wiley); five grandchildren, Marcia Densford, Denise Reilly, Sharon Bloodgood, Tim Goodwin, and Todd Goodwin; and sixteen great-grandchildren. Visitation will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by funeral services at 1 p.m., Saturday, July 14 at Memorial Park Funeral Home and Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be sent to the Alzheimer's Foundation of America. Memorial Park Funeral Home and Cemetery, 5668 Poplar Ave. Memphis, TN 38119, (901)767-8930, "Behind the Stone Wall".

Dear Phyllis & Wiley You have our deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow but we know that she is in heaven playing the organ. I remember her playing the organ a few months ago when I went to see her. You are in our prayers.

I am so sorry I will not be able to be there for her celebration. She was a really funny lady and made me smile. I know it will be hard to learn to live without her. I found myself reaching for the phone many times to call my mother after she was gone.
