Nancy Walters

FEB 9, 1922 - FEB 4, 2011

Nancy Farmer Walters, 88, of Germantown, died February 4th at Baptist Collierville Hospital. Nancy was born in Clarksville, TN to the late Henry and Ruby Farmer. She graduated from Austin Peay University. She moved to Memphis in 1948 where she met and married the late James Walters on April 19th, 1949. They had 2 daughters and were married for 52 years. Nancy was a teacher in the Memphis City School system for over 35 years at several different schools including the opening of East High School and White Station High. She was also involved with Alpha Delta Kappa, a teacher's sorority, for many years. Nancy was a member of Christ United Methodist Church where she was active in the Kingswood Sunday School class and the Rachel UMW circle. Nancy was a loving and devoted mother and grandmother, spending much of her time with her grandchildren and she will be dearly missed. She is survived by her two daughters, Sue Walters Munson (George) of Chattanooga and Amy Walters Linder (Scott) of Germantown, 3 grandchildren, Andy Doyle Gray of Chattanooga, Casey Linder and Abby Linder of Germantown. She is also survived by her brother, Henry Farmer Jr. (Dorothy) of Atlanta and nieces and nephews. Visitation will be at Memorial Park Funeral Home, Monday February 7th from 9:30 – 11:30 with the service to follow at 11:30. The family requests that any memorial contributions be made to Christ United Methodist Church.
