Kyle Douglas Henegar

APR 28, 1984 - NOV 11, 2010

Kyle Douglas Henegar, 26, was killed in a plane crash along with his brother Kristopher, at Palm Beach International Airport on Thursday November 11, 2010. He graduated from Germantown High School in 2002 and from Florida Institute of Technology where he earned his Bachelor Degree in Aviation Meteorology in May of 2008. Kyle was a lifelong member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church and after graduating from FIT, Kyle was the Lead Technician in the Internet Technology department at Florida Institute of Technology. Kyle leaves his parents, Sharon and Doug, his brother Craig, grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins as well as the love of his life, Christina Couperthwaite (Melbourne, FL). Memorial Services and Candlelight Vigils have been held at FIT and Melbourne for the friends and family in Florida. A joint Memorial Service will be held for Kyle and his brother Kristopher at Collierville United Methodist Church on Saturday, December 4th at 2:00 pm. The family requests that memorials be sent to Bank Tennessee in Collierville.
