Lester Lawrence Giordano Jr.

JAN 19, 1971 - APR 3, 2020

Lester Giordano, described by most who knew him as “larger than life”, passed away on Friday, April 3, 2020, at the age of 49. Lester had a magnetic personality that left a lasting impression on everyone he met. He was truly an unforgettable person.

Lester had a passion for everything he did and lived life to its fullest. Though he worked hard, he played harder. Lester loved LSU football, lazy days on Pickwick lake, crawfish, hosting get togethers on his patio, having a drink with friends, loud dance parties with his girls in the living room, and generally just having a good time. He was loud and boisterous while also kind and generous. Anyone who spent time with Lester will likely have a story to tell about him - not all of which would be G-rated. Even so, faith was just as important to Lester. A member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Lester ensured his children developed a relationship with God.

Known by much of his family as “Little Les”, Lester did everything big. He had the opportunity to have several once-in-a-lifetime adventures, like playing golf at Pebble Beach, attending both a national championship and super bowl with his favorite teams, and hunting and fishing in several corners of the world. In the last two years, Lester and his girls could be seen traveling the States in their RV. Football games, beaches, and theme parks were frequent destinations for this family time. These trips were always memorable, including one that ended with a horse kicking him.

Though he described himself as a “simple tool salesman”, Lester founded and led three successful businesses dedicated to supporting the medical manufacturing industry. His master plan was to build a company that could be passed down to his children. Within 6 short years, he was well on his way to accomplishing that goal. Balancing success in both business and family was important to Lester.

In addition to his love for life, Lester had a love of people. He had a longstanding goal of meeting at least one new person each day. He became personal friends with many of his customers, and made everyone around him feel special.

Obituary

Lester Lawrence Giordano Jr.

JAN 19, 1971 - APR 3, 2020

Lester is survived by his wife of almost 17 years, Janet; his daughters Avery (9) and Brooke (7); mother Nancy; sister Laura Aucoin and her husband, Everett; sister Tiffani Morales; niece Annalise Morales; nephew Abby Morales; in-laws Dianne & Travis Wright and Jimmy Sturdivant; loyal hunting dog, Millie; and numerous friends who were considered family. His father, Lester Giordano, Sr., met him at the gates of heaven. He was also preceded in death by brother-in-law, Donald Morales, and grandparents Setsu & Frank Harp and Jeanne “Billie” & Andrew “Coach” Giordano.

Given the current national conditions and the family’s concern for the well-being of others, a memorial mass will follow at a later date. Donations in Lester’s memory can be sent to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital (www.stjude.org, Memorial ID 11982513) or Camp Good Grief (www.baptistgriefcenters.org), an organization dedicated to helping children deal with the loss of a loved one.

Lester, I remember when you first came to the Memphis area as a young, raw, and willing to learn salesperson. You were so energetic and asked for my help and advice numerous times the first 10 years or so. In later years you would call and share with me your successes and always so proud. This is such a shock, but you left a "legacy" in a short period of time with us. I even remember when you met your wife Janet and you called me asking me if I knew where Bellfontaine MS was and I said yes, why? You said, "Charlie I met a girl from there and I'm pretty sure she's the one I want to spend the rest of my life with." Well you did buddy, and we are gonna miss you.,,,RIPCharlie Brown

Lester, I write this with tears in my eyes. You were my hero when I was a kid in junior high. Looked up to the seniors and my cousin Amir was in your class. You were always larger than life to me and will always be. I wore this number with pride and you impacted my life. A source of Joy with the kind of bursting personality that makes you smile. Humanity is at a loss but I know you are home. To the family may the peace that passes all understanding find you in your time of loss. I have only known Lester a short time. Less than two years. In that time Lester treated me like family from the beginning. I witnessed so many generous and kind gestures from him. He had a huge heart and love of the business. If Lester was involved, "it was first class". It was my pleasure to work with him. He will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers to the family. Hello Janet, We have never met but I got to know Lester thru the Seco Advisory Council that met twice a year. As stated, Lester was always lighting up the room with his insurmountable energy!! The first time we might it was evident that he would succeed in his business and although I offered to mentor him if need be, every time I saw him again his business had grown! He was filled with joy and pride in his family. I am greatly saddened by this premature loss and will miss him dearly but please rejoice that he is in heaven. My family has been praying for peace to be on you all. He will truly be missed. I am sure you have plenty of guidance but if I could ever help in any way I would be happy to assist. God bless you all.

A memory of Lester: One Saturday I ran over something in the street and blew my tire out on the way to Lowe's. Dean was at work in the OR and couldn't come to change my tire. I had tried to change it myself but couldn't get the bolts loosened. So I texted Dean and he said text Janet and see if Lester can come and change it. Sure enough here they come to my rescue! Lester changed my tire and said give Dean a kiss for me! Just the kinda guy he was! RIP Lester!
