Jan, I tried to find you for years. I found out you passed on in December of 2022. I knew you as my best friend from the 4th grade. I've now met Courtney. She is lovely and she filled me in on your life since 1972. I will see you again soon I'm sure. I loved you as a fun, smart, kooky friend.

Dear Jan, You were the best mother-in-law I could have hoped for. From the moment we met, I felt your love and grace. You were a true Southern Belle in all the best ways--strength, beauty and kindness. I cherish your combination of grit and demur. Your love and generosity are with me, Sarah and Sophie. You will always be their Granny Jan. Eternally grateful, Linda
