Freda R. Alford

OCT 28, 1930 - APR 17, 2020

Freda R. Alford, 89, of Memphis, was born in Temple, Oklahoma and grew up in Greenville, Texas. She graduated from Greenville High School in 1947 and was editor of the High-Flash paper. She was deputy County Clerk in Greenville's Court House for four years. She left Greenville in 1950 following her marriage to Jimmy Alford of Memphis, Tennessee. Following her move to Memphis she began working at Fisher Insurance.

In 1952, She and husband Jimmy Alford built and pioneered a successful business in school day & senior photography, still known today as Jimmy Alford Studios. Freda was crowned Queen of Sceptre of the 1957 Memphis Cotton Carnival.

Freda is survived by her three sons, Wes Alford (Tina), Steve Alford, Jody Alford (Vickie), 2 grandchildren, Anna, and Wesley, 2 step-grandchildren, Chris (Susanne), & Sarah (Matt), four step-great-grand children, Kenedy, Paisley, Jerzey, & Miller and a brother, Ray Ragan (Molly) of Greenville, Texas. Freda was preceded in death by her grand-daughter, Ashton Alford & husband Jimmy Alford.

Due to Covid-19, a small intimate private family service will be held at Memorial Park Funeral Home and Cemetery, 5668 Poplar Avenue in Memphis.

Memorial contributions can be made in honor of Freda to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or the Alzheimer's Association.

A true matriarch, she will be missed. She was dynamic, magnetic, a strong influence, a leader and a real example of a true friend and always such a lady. She was one in a million and there was no one like her. We all loved her very much. Thanks to her family for always sharing her with us. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. With love, Vickie Middleton Blevins
