Priscilla was a fun lady who started out as my customer at Chico's but then soon became my friend! I had so much fun helping her put together outfits and helping her find the right fit. She had the best smile and wonderful sense of humor and was just such a sweet lady ❤️ She will be missed

When I lived on Peg Lane 1984 - 1994, I was treated often with wonderful conversations with Priscilla as she passed my house while walking her dogs. Always super friendly. She made you feel better just by being around her. Precious lady. Prayers for her family & friends. 🙏

I will always remember how she'd like to eat dessert and take the dinner part home to eat later (with a roll, of course!), our trips to Gulf Shores, and the Christmas get togethers we used to have when I was a kid. I loved our weekly lunches when I was working at the vet clinic close to her house and talking about dogs, dogs, and more dogs. Grammy, Leo, Abe and I love and will miss you. -Your granddaughter, Jenna-

She was the BEST mother in law i could ever have. When my mom died, i was still in my early 30s. She offered to be my mom anytime I needed. She always smiled, hugged, and told me she loved me. She will be missed.

Mama Priscilla as she was called by me 😊😊 I do miss her walks and her Sweet Surprises she'd share with me...Our favorite, The Chocolate Fudge Soft cookies from Kroger..She knew I liked The Home section from The Sunday Paper and her People magazines, I'd find in a bag on my back door. Priscilla, you were a GREAT DAUGHTER and you have been blessed to have a husband that stood by you in the caring of your Mother since your Dad passed. GOD GAVE YOU AND STEVE the strength then and he will give you the strength now. I ❤️ you and Kisses in heaven for Mama Priscilla ❤️❤️ Diane Webb

I'm with Annie, Priscilla was one dynamite lady! I am sorry she struggled the last few months, she tried very hard to roll with changes and challenges. She was one dear lady and we miss her at Trezevant. Beth Carson

Mrs Read was truly one of the sweetest people ever! I have missed her "YooHoo" coming to her room daily when she was at Trezevant. Her sweet spirit I will never forget!
