Denise Woodland was the youngest of three beautiful daughters born to the late Eugene Reed and Beulah Young Reed on September 1, 1953 in Memphis, Tennessee.

Denise - lovingly called “Desi” by her friends - was a loving mother, sister, and friend that touched the lives of so many people. She was full of life and family oriented. To my sister Denise, even though we lived miles apart, I always carried you in my heart, thoughts and prayers. Thank you for teaching me to use Mustard in my spaghetti sauce, this was a great tip. I always let people know it was you who taught me. I am PROUD to share the same name. Love you. Your baby sister Denise. Buffalo, NY
