Bob was a very special friend who sang Happy Birthday to me on my birthday for many years. I talked with him at church and when he was working at the CLC. I was so sorry to hear that he'd passed away. I would have been at the service had I known about it. He was a blessing to me!

I will hold in my heart memories of your laughter and what you would say to me every time we talked on the phone. The memories of you, your mother and mine always laughing and joking around on moms porch in Wisconsin. I will also remember the wisdom and love you always expressed and showed. You are now home where you have longed to be. Forever missed until we meet again.
