Janice, Jocelyn and family members, I am so very sorry for your loss. Hate I could not attend services. So glad I got to see both of you a couple of years ago at restaurant in Cordova. Prayers for all of you.-Kathy Hock

As an alto in the Kingsway choir I had the pleasure of standing in front of Jim for the past 3 years. I quickly came to enjoy and appreciate his sence of humor. He loved to joke around with his fellow tenors and others. He will be missed and please accept my condolences for your loss.Harriet Surprise
