Our love and condolences go out to everyone. Chris and I were best friends in high school, and he was my best man at my wedding. We didn't see each other as much later in life, but I knew if I needed help he would have been there for me. It figures Chris would be a car salesman, he loved to drive. In high school we would drive around for hours, in his Vega. Then we traveled the country together. This time using our thumbs. From sleeping under a pinball machine in New Orleans, to being in an anti war demonstration in Berkeley. We got to experience so much together. These are some of my memories of Chris. I wish I had told him how much our escapades and friendship have meant to me. Rest in peace, my dear friend. Phillip and Frankie Henning

I worked with Jeffries several years. He was an incredible man whom I laughed with many times. We debated, talked about many issues, and had a great time together. He spoke of his family often, and loved them very much. I'm proud to have known him.
