Rameshbhai, what a legendary life you have lead !Your fond memories will always be cherished.As a young boy every time we visited Mamaji & family in Arusha from Moshi, I would look forward to meeting you just for delightful fun. These were The Beatles & Chubby Chucker - we watched you did The Twist.Humor came naturally to you.You could fix anything - from our bikes to gadgets - Mr. MacGyver of yesteryear !I still remember that you along with Mamaji & Mami had come over for the weekend to visit us in Moshi - and you had built a Hichko (swing) from a tree limb using a tire and a rope - it became Janak and my cherished possession.Rest easy !Dilip, Indira, Reena & Rishi Trivedi.

Ramesh Masaji loved socializing with people. He was such a selfless, simple man who touched so many lives. He had a heart of gold. He was very attentive and would listen to everyone's problems and offer solutions to them. As he was remarkably intelligent and filled with wisdom, Nila Masi, Maneshree, Ashu, Heena, Jim, Brenden, Leya and his entire family could always count on him. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to the entire family. Ramesh Masaji also had a great sense of humor and there was never a dull moment with him when one was around him. He would make some of the silliest jokes that forced me to laugh or smile. His wit and sense of humor were his trademark as our Masaji. My parents and I would visit Arusha a lot from Nairobi and those were also some very special times which I still remember to this day. The safaris with him were a blast. My husband, Cliff, and I were very lucky to have been able to spend Thanksgiving with him and the family last year. We enjoyed some beautiful moments and we will cherish those memories forever. Rest in peace Masaji. We Love you always, Cliff and Hitu

From Rajesh Dave, son of Jayshree & Dr Jayant Dave:Our indestructible Superman, Superhero, Super Star a significant portion of the happiest Arusha days revered with God like awe and respect we would watch gobsmacked as our Hero did pushups while doing handstands. There was nothing he could not do or fix. The caring, the compassion, the list goes on and on. When Dad passed away, we were fortunate enough to spend quality time with Ramesh Kaka ... I requested him to share funny episodes with Dad that we may have heard about before - he shared so many gems we took in every word he had to say over his favourite Australian beer. We loved him and will continue to love him forever. RIP with all the Arusha movies Dad has taken with you in them, we have those forever, this is simply a transition, you are forever etched in the core of our hearts. Love you to the end of the Universe and back.....From the entire Dave family.

I have know Ramesh Kaka since my early years in Arusha. He was like a little brother to my dad, Dr Jayant Dave. Dad and mum (Jayshree Dave) loved him dearly as did all of us - Purna, Rajesh, myself and Kamlesh Dave. He was strict with us and appeared stern but on the inside was as soft as a marshmallow! He was a kind, caring and compassionate soul and we will cherish his memories forever. Lots of love and hugs to Nila Bhabhi, Heena, Ashish and the rest of the family. Our thoughts are with you! 🙏 Alka Dave

I have very fond memories of Ramesh Kaka during my childhood in Arusha. He was a little brother to my dad, Dr Jayant Dave and a very loyal brother-in-law to my mum, Jayshree Dave. He always looked out for them as they did for him. I am so grateful that I got to spend time with him in March 2012 when he visited us in Australia. We sat and had long conversations and heard many stories about life in Arusha. Ramesh Kaka was a kind, caring, loving and generous soul - tough on the outside but soft on the inside. I will always remember him fondly. ❤️ My love and hugs to Nila Bhabhi, Hina, Manushree, Ashish and the rest of the family. Warmest wishes Alka Dave 🙏👤🙏
