The light in my life just got dimmer and my heart has broken in two to hear of Kathy's passing. Oh what memories you've left me from our high school years together. We were definitely "partners in crime" and had such fun.....and then we both got married and lived in Raleigh and we continued making memories until life separated us and we finally reconnected on Facebook a few years ago. I'm just completely heartbroken and will miss you forever.....until we're reunited.

I will love you forever my sweet sister. In heaven or on earth we are always connected by our hearts. The precious fun memories of our childhood, all our long conversations, gatherings, beach days are the happy days I remember. God offered you his hand on Sunday and I know you are free and happy, and one day we will all be together again. We are heartbroken with tears streaming down our faces but know your light shines on in heaven. Your lovingly sister, Julie
