When I heard the beautiful the name of Chengwu, I was a little kid. From stories told by my father, I got an impression he would be a bright and good looking person. When I was in my 20th, I finally met him in person in my parent's home. I found he was indeed intelligent, handsome, and family oriented. Although I only met him once, I continued learning many successful stories of him from cousin Yuming and other relatives. I always admire him and the wonderful family he and Yuming have. Wish him a safe and happy journey to heaven! Yuming, Siyan, and Xingyan, our hearts are with you and your family. -Iris and family

My husband, Jerry Brownlee, and I are very close friends to his daughter, Siyan, and family. We have had the honor to be with him and his wife at the Jeff and Siyan Hamsley home. We have known this fine gentleman for several years and saw how he helped with his grandchildren's Chinese education when they were young. He had a soft and generous nature and I feel he was loved by all who knew him, We are very sorry for your loss and know that Mrs Yuming and family were blessed to have him in their life for so many years. Sincerely, Margaret Brownlee
