I knew her as a teenager and she was a very sweet lady. Haven't had the privilege of seeing her in over 40 years but always sweet memories. Prayers for Shirley and her wonderful family.

I lived with uncle Joe and aunt Nell for many years and have a lot of good memories. One is when we would go to the fairgrounds and get cotton candy and ice cream it was so much fun. Nell loved music and was a good singer and dancer. She will surely be missed.
