Denise Kee Mcgee lit a candle in honor of Edith.

My deepest sympathy to the Sledge Family. I did not have the opportunity to meet Mrs. Edith Sledge but I work at the Sheriff's Office with her son, Alan Sledge. He is a sweetheart. Alan truly loved his mom and did not mind caring for her. Everyday I would ask Alan about his mom and sometimes send her some food to eat. Mrs. Sledge lived a long and good life. Rest in Peace. Edith was always such a lovely and such a pretty lady and I think such a talented musician. I remember that I was so impressed that she played the organ for maybe Raliegh Batpist Church for years. she was devoted to her husband and son, Vic and Alan. I can remember that Victor adored her and always called her "Edie". I am sure that she will be missed.
