I considered Paul a good friend, a professional, a mentor, and a kind gentleman. Of course, he was much more and his stories about hunting, the farm, the lake, the chickens, and the vultures are cherished memories of mine. I have missed talking with him. For me, his memories will live on!James Acker

My condolences to this wonderful guy's precious family and friends. I remember so well ,when I was only a young child, being in the woods deer hunting with all of em. Paul riding his old camo 3-wheeler up and down the trails through the woods lol. One time he killed a really nice deer ,a 15pt, on the lake bottom. He strap that dude down, like he was driving that ol 3wheeler, and drove home to Memphis like that lmao. This family will always hold a special spot in my heart for all the memories I have with them as a youngster. RIP my friends Til we meet again
