Michael R. Twitty

JUL 20, 1954 - SEP 14, 2021

Michael R Twitty of Memphis died on September 14, 2021, with an aggressive cancer. He was born July 20, 1957. He attended Raleigh Egypt High School and The University of Memphis. He worked for Federal Express in Purchasing. He spent time in real estate, including owning and operating Pyramid Parking Inc. Mike was smart and had a good sense of humor. He kept up with current events, especially local matters, and enjoyed telling stories about Memphis. He enjoyed breakfast at Kroger in Germantown and spending time at the Main Library. Mike was strong willed and plagued by health issues which contributed to difficulties for his family. Yet he received communion, a declaration of the body and blood of God's Messiah, a full payment for the worst of sins. Mike was a member of Second Presbyterian Church and was blessed by the ministry of Memphis Union Mission. Mike is survived by five siblings: Kathryn Baker, Jeri (Leslie) Twitty, Donald Twitty, Jessica Trout, and Mark Twitty. There will be a grave side service at Memorial Park Cemetery on Monday, December 13, at 9 a.m. Memorials can be sent to Memphis Union Mission or Second Presbyterian Church.
