Mike I will definately miss seeing you around. Lots of fun over the years: BBQfest ParrotHead Porkers, Reindear Parties, Wine tastings and recommendations as well as Trivia night at Tony's Trophy Room! Always a gentleman and passionate about all things Memphis as well as enjoying life to the fullest. Rest in Peace Mike! - Angie Murdock

Mike and I spent many a hot, dusty week at Tom Lee Park volunteering for Memphis In May. One of the always funny things was we all enjoyed was everyone knew where to find Mike. If you called him on the radio asking his 20, the classic response was Team Larry here. I will miss you Mike. Love ya JimBoBilyBob

Rest In Peace our dear friend. Mike supported Memphis music to the fullest. He always requested we play "Amy". We will always think of Mike when we play his song. I'm so thankful for his 30 years friendship and thankful to have had a great visit and hug just 3 weeks ago. We will miss you dearly Mike. In our hearts forever. All the family will be in our prayers Pam and Terry

Jim Gambill and I were so saddened over Mike's death. He was such an all over, good guy ! Our Band played for several of his Parties, most recently, in December, for his Reindeer Dance. He was so proud of what that Party stood for, in collecting the Bears. We'll sure miss seeing him around the Music Scene. Rest In Peace, Mike. Cheri & Jim Gambill
