So sorry to hear of the passing of Linda. She was a beautiful person and had a beautiful family. We had lost touch for years but began to communicate on fb. She was my third or fourth cousin on my mother's side, the Kelly's. Many of her family are buried in Tyronza cemetery in Arkansas where her family lived for many years. I remember her and Beverly going to Turrell school. God bless you all as you. My prayers are with you.

Linda is and will always be my best friend. We worked together and would talk in different cars. We talked so much my son had to buy me some more hours. I would sit in my car and wait till she got in the house safely. We played loud music at work, we danced and laughed in the office. I love you Lynn know one thing we did very well for share cropper daughters! So proud of what you accomplished and also how much love you showed everyone. You Kelley's are a strong bunch for sure. Those angels that took care of you (Rhonda and Carla) I will love them forever.
