William (Bill) Thomas Nicklas

JUN 25, 1968 - JUL 20, 2022

William (Bill) Thomas Nicklas 54, was the owner of All Seasons Landscape for 34 years. He passed away the morning of July 20, 2022 after a courageous battle with his health.

Bill was born June 25, 1968 to Thomas and Mary Nicklas. He has two sisters, Christy Sharkey and Maria Russell.

Bill is survived by his wife, Kelly, of 33 years his son, Thomas Nicklas and his daughter, Taylor Nicklas and numerous other relatives and friends.

He is predeceased by his father, Thomas Nicklas and mother, Mary Nicklas and nephew, Nicklas Russell.

Bill met Kelly while working at Kmart in the garden center and Kelly in the cash office. The only name she knew him by was Wildman.

He had many hobbies but two of his favorites were listening to hard rock music and watching sports. He was an avid "Memphis State" fan and enjoyed spending time with his son watching basketball and football. He also loved blaring his rock music at all hours and driving around late nights listening to it with his daughter.

He always shared his love for things with others and was a devoted husband and father. He supported us throughout the many accomplishments and difficulties in our lives and spent every moment he could with his family – especially during holidays.

His quirky sense of humor, willingness to help others, and radiating love will always be remembered. His love will shine through us forever and he will be deeply missed by everyone.
