I met Barbara when our boys played sports in Bartlett when they were very young. She was a very sweet lady. I am so sorry for her children and grandchildren. I worked at Bartlett Lanes and saw Chad every day. It is so sad for all her family. Rest In Peace sweet lady 🙏🙏❤️❤�

Barbara became my best forever friend in 1962 when my family moved to Burdette. Although my family didn't stay there long. We formed a sisterhood that kept us close in heart if not in proximity. Our love and friendship was a gift from God and I will forever miss her. ☐

Barbara Jane was closer than a cousin. I spent most of my childhood at their home on Dogwood. Her sister Susie and I were inseparable and I'm sure Barbara got tired of us little girls always pestering her. We all loved cats and they always had kittens around. I miss her soooo much.
