William Henry Carrier

William Henry Carrier was a lifelong Memphian born June 25th, 1955 to his dear parents William “Bill” Carrier and Mary King Carrier. Henry died peacefully at home on Thursday, December 8th and joins his parents in heaven.

Henry was a greatly loved husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, and friend. Faith, family, friends, and service to others meant everything to him. Henry attended Presbyterian Day School, Memphis University School, and East High School. Henry’s athletic prowess was exhibited from an early age. He played competitive and high school baseball as a catcher, basketball, and football as a quarterback. Henry graduated from Christian Brothers University where he attended on a baseball scholarship. Coaching and watching his children excel in sports and life, playing softball for Trash and Alex’s Tavern, golfing, competing in MIM Barbeque and Italian Fest, and the Memphis Tigers all brought Henry great joy. Henry will be remembered for his huge heart and his devotion to his wife, children, grandchildren, family, faith, and friends. It was our family's pleasure to meet Henry at the wedding events. We witnessed the love and support he had for his family and friends. I'm glad we took the time to check out his hangout! He was pretty proud showing us his pictures at the bar and the writing on the men's restroom. Wish we could have gotten to spend more time with him. Rest in peace.
