Mark, this is Billy Wilson. I don't know your phone number so I'm hoping you see this message. I was at Harry Liberto's visitation last night & Tony told me your mom passed away last year. I want you to know that I had no idea. I thought the world of your mother. She was such a great and very sweet person. During my days at Holy Rosary, she was very kind to me and I never forgot all of the good things she did for me. To this very day, I have great memories of your mother. In am so disappointed that I missed her funeral. I hope you are doing well. All the best, Billy Wilson

Dana And Suzanne Turner lit a candle in honor of Joyce.

Dana and I both have fond memories of Joyce. The one that comes to mind is how much she loved you, Mark, and Bob! She was so proud of you! She loved Donna and Nikki too! We even remember when Shannon was born how supportive she was! She will be missed for sure but we know she's with the good Lord and Bob!! We love you all and may you, Donna and Nikki find comfort and peace in all the great memories!
