Aidan was extremely protective of those he loved and was always happy to help (no matter what terms we were on at the time). I celebrate the caring, funny, protective brother that I grew up with. I will mourn the relationship with Aidan That could have been as we aged, and I will mourn the possibility of what Aidan's future would have held. My favorite memories with Aidan are when we were small, maybe 5/8 years old. We would ride in the car to school singing Bon Jovi and Poison songs while making up stupid dances to them. We would make obstacle courses in the upstairs of our home and have the best time racing. I remember catching baby toads by a pond near my grandmother's house and waking up together way too early on Christmas mornings as kids. I will never be able to drink a smoothie again without thinking of him.

I remember just a few months ago, I had struggled so much to put this table together. I had spent hours and hours on it and couldn't figure it out. So I immediately texted Aidan to see if he could help and sure enough he came over immediately. We spent hours putting that table together, blasting some rock music, hanging out and just talking about funny memories from when we were younger. Aidan always jumped in to help me whenever I needed him, and we turned that day into a fun blast from the past of all these fun memories we remembered for when we were growing up. Aidan was amazing, so helpful and kind, and I loved every time we got to hangout. No matter how long it was.

I worked with Aidan's beautiful mother Pam for almost 2 years over 15 years ago & I remembered her talking about her 3 babies & I decided Aidan would be my baby too! I will cherish the conversations & pics we shared & believe our baby is at peace! Mom, you gave your all...family stay strong & come together as one. RIP baby boy.

I was so deeply sorry to learn of Aidan's passing. My heartfelt sympathy is with all in his family. His grandmother loved him so much, as he did her. She often talked so fondly of him to me. Some comfort can be had in knowing that they are at peace together. I pray that God will continue to bless you all with His love and comfort through each and every day. Love and prayers to all.
