When I think about Emily, the words that come to mind are Open Arms. She was one of the warmest and kindest people despite all her struggle. I remember touring the National Civil Rights Museum with Emily and being in awe of how much injustice frustrated her, how a lack of empathy or kindness seemed so unreasonable to her, and she wasn't afraid to speak up about it! She would tell me that it's because she knows what it's like to not feel understood, and yet she always wanted others to be treated well and with love. I will always carry that part of her spirit with me, as there are so many like myself who benefit and can learn from her example of unconditional kindness. To Emily, Sherry, and the Toarminas-- thank you for letting me join for a small part of her journey. I'm so grateful to have known Emily, to have loved her, and I hope she knew it and feels it even now. - Melanie Pang

The Greeter Team at Hope Church that Emily was a part of for years, together with Sherry and Ms. Dolores, send our love and sympathy for the loss that Emily's passing is to all that knew her. Yet we give thanks for her life and what she meant to those around her. We take comfort in knowing that she has moved on to a place beyond the worries and concerns of this world and that we can anticipate being reunited there with her one day. Until then, Emily will be missed and remembered fondly. ❤️

The last time Eva and I saw Emily was at Neils to hear Patty sing. She told me about family outings and asked about Bruce. We joked about him being my secretary. I love the Celine Dion story. We love you Emily.

It is so sad for a parent to lose a child. My heart goes out to each person who knew Emily. I never met Emily, but based on her picture and what Diane, Carol, Rosi, Jeannie, and Eva have said, Emily was a beautiful and sweet woman. Big hugs to everyone who knew her. Love Jane (Eldred) Berry
