William John McGoldrick

APR 28, 1932 - SEP 23, 2023

William John McGoldrick, 91 of Bartlett, went to be with the Lord, September 23, 2023, at Kings Daughters and Sons.

Bill was an avid choral and barbershop singer for his entire adult life. His claims to fame were singing in Carnegie Hall at age 4, being able to sight-read music at age 7, famous for being an avid 'hugger,' and kissing the Blarney stone in Ireland. He served in the USAF from 1952 to 1956 during the Korean War. He retired as a supervisor with the Internal Revenue Service where he worked for 21 years. He attended Grace Presbyterian Church in Bartlett, TN.

He is survived by his wife, Jane St. Clair McGoldrick of 48 years. His survivors include sons, Keith McGoldrick, Shawn McGoldrick; daughter-in-law, L. Allene McGoldrick; two grandsons; five great-granddaughters; two great-grandsons. He was preceded in death by his first wife Edna Svava McGoldrick in 1975.

Visitation will be at Grace Presbyterian Church in Bartlett on Saturday, October 14 from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM. A memorial service will be held immediately following the visitation at 11:00 AM.

The family requests that any memorial contributions be sent to: Grace Presbyterian Church 6671 Yale Rd. Bartlett, TN 38134 or Faith Life Outreach 1435 Wells Station Rd. Memphis, TN 38108.

William John McGoldrick

Linda Sue Hunter lit a candle in honor of William.

Scott and I are saddened at the loss of Bill. We extend deepest condolences to Jane McGoldrick. We are members of Grace Presbyterian and always enjoyed Bill. He was indeed an avid hugger. He also liked to make people smile with his jokes, which were always innocent and respectful. He spoke in a grammatically correct manner. He would always acknowledge me when I spoke with grammatical correctness. I recall at a lunch when I said the wait staff were bringing food quickly. Right away, Bill said that others might say "quick" instead of quickly. He had high intelligence, and had fascinating stories. Scott worked to keep the church prepared for Bill's funeral, and I need assistance if I go out. I watched his lovely service on line as it was shown live. We will miss Bill. Welcome, my good and faithful servant; no doubt Bill is with our Lord, Jesus Christ.
