Deborah Lynn O'Brien

DEC 5, 2023

Deborah Lynn O'Brien 66, of Memphis, TN, sadly left this world December 5, 2023.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Francis and Marjorie Perry, her brothers, Frank and Mike Perry and her beloved daughter, Lindsey O'Brien.

She is survived by her husband, John O'Brien, her children, Noah and Alexis Loudenslager, 5 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

A retired nurse from Methodist University Hospital, she had a 35-year career in the cardiovascular intensive care unit. She was a caring and dedicated mother to her children and grandchildren.

It's never easy to say goodbye to someone who has been a part of our lives. When that person is gone, there's a hole where she used to be in your life. While saying goodbye means accepting that a part of our life is over, it also provides us with a chance to realize just how blessed our lives have been and blessed we have all been to have journeyed with this amazing woman.

It was her wish that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to American Foundation of Suicide Prevention.

She was always so full of life and could always make us laugh. Her and John were the best hosts throwing parties in their home when Lex, Noah and I were teenagers. She is a beautiful soul and I will miss her smile. I'm so sorry for your loss...

My heart is flowing with tears since Debbie's gone! She was a good one. We always laughed through thick and thin. We met in 9th grade during Treadwell High School days then onto Kingsbury, and afterwards, always kept in touch. We had some wild times in our youth like the time we got bored and decided to run away hahaha or when we'd sneak off on our bikes to Overton Park to pretend we were hippies. Iwe always got caught! There were soo many many laughs that I hope she kept a journal of her time with everyone on this ole' earth. She was a great person and will be so missed til the day I die!
