I first met Shirley, 30 years ago, at lunch with her daughter Holly at Boston's Restaurant, I remember is so clearly because I left the restaurant feeling like I was one of the family. She was so kind, funny, sweet and beautiful! She held my hand, across the table, numerous times during our lunch. Shirley was the epitome of Southern hospitality. My heart hurts for her loss, but I am comforted knowing she in in heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Good bye Shirley, you will be missed, with love, Irene
