Janet Majilton

JUN 1, 1948 - DEC 25, 2023

Janet Elaine Majilton (75)- Passed away peacefully December 25th at Methodist Germantown Hospital after losing her battle with esophageal cancer.

Born June 1st 1948 in Memphis, TN to Hugh West and Cleo Fuller. Younger Sister to Vivian. Graduated White Station Highschool in 1965 where she was universally regarded as the "Sweetest, kindest person around". Janet would go on to attend UT-Knoxville where she earned her B.S. in Library Science and developed her life long love of the Volunteers. She would follow up by earning her M.S. in Library Science at the University of Wisconsin. She became the Head of both the Cherokee & Raleigh Library Branches before taking the position of Collection Development Officer (CDO) at the Main Library in Memphis, TN. Before and during her time as CDO, Janet was a member of multiple National Library Committee's where she acquired the knowledge she would use to develop & implement the system to acquire and distribute ALL physical content for ALL Libraries in the entire city of Memphis, a system that is still used to this day, touching countless minds & lives in the process. A long time member of Bellevue Baptist Church, Janet would also volunteer her time for close to two decades as a Coordinator for the Children's Programs every Wednesday night.

Janet would marry 3 times in her life. The second marriage would bring her the joy's of her life in her Daughter Dana Michelle Van Eps & her son David Christopher Majilton, and by extension her two grandchildren Aiden Thomas & Isabella Rose Van Eps. Janet's third marriage February 28th, 1987 to Mark Majilton brought her not only the "Love Of Her Life" but a true soul mate. Ever inseparable Janet & Mark would spend the next 36yrs, 9months, and 27 Days creating a true and unbreakable bond.

Even though a back injury would keep her from her absolute love of ballroom dancing, in retirement Janet would continue to pursue every other one of her life's greatest passions. Whether it was singing, taking care of her myriad of both inside and outside cat's, gardening with her husband Mark and her "furry little helpers", reading a good book, working on her latest

Janet and I worked at South Branch Library Many years ago. We were both single again and we had lots of fun working together and going out after work sometime. I will always treasure her friendship. She is resting at the feet of Jesus now. Rosemary Huff Parsley
