I've had the pleasure of knowing Davy for several years now. 8 I believe. He was kind, funny, generous, and just easy to talk to all around !! I know You are right where you wanted to be but that doesn't make the rest of us miss you any less!! BTW Im upset that you stood me up for your daughter's wedding! I prayed he would make it to that day but he just couldn't!! I'm so sorry! Missing you and T so much!! You were a good man Davy and I'm proud to call you my friend! Love you always!!

I didn't know you super well, but I always appreciated your kindness and generosity to the people I love. The last time I saw you was when you and Andy drove Jesse and me to get some dinner. We had to go multiple fast food establishments to get chicken nuggets [Burger King does not sell McNuggets 😞] and then Wendy's had the audacity to be out of Frosty's. Rest easy. You won't be forgotten. ❤️
