So very sorry to find Jim's obituary. I went to East with him. He was always a friend, so kind and witty. I know Jim will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers to his family and many friends.

Stump was an original. It was my absolute pleasure to have known him for the past 35 or so years. He once told me that I was less full of... well, you know, than most people he knew. I think he liked me, too. I will miss him dearly.
