Lois Brown

OCT 31, 1944 - JUL 12, 2024

Remembering the vibrant life of Mary DeLois (Lois) Faircloth Brown. Yoyo left us on July 12, 2024 at the age of 79, but she left an indelible mark on all who knew her with her infectious energy and unwavering support for her loved ones. She was our superhero; a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, sister and friend.

Born on October 31, 1944 and raised in Lake Providence, La., Yoyo was the second youngest of thirteen children. She met her soulmate, the late Jim Brown in 1961 when he stopped in Hugo's, a restaurant, in Lake Providence. She knew immediately that Jim Brown was the one. Jim and Lois Brown were married for 44 years. Over the years their family grew to include four children: Paige (Jeff) Michael, Jay Brown, Christopher (Danielle) Brown, Jason (Melissa) Brown, eight grandchildren: Hayden Veneklas, Colin, Raegan and Camryn Michael, Zachary and Tyler Brown and Kendall and Hudson Brown, two great-grandchildren: Greyson and Holden Veneklas

Yoyo lived life to the fullest and left behind a legacy of love and joy. She was a steadfast presence at her children and grandchildren's ball games always cheering them on with "HER signature enthusiasm". Yoyo loved her LSU Tigers. She was an exceptional and avid bridge player. Her spirit was unbreakable, even after beating cancer at the age of 74. Her impact on those around her is immeasurable. She will be deeply missed but her memory will continue to inspire us all to live life with purpose and passion.

The family invites friends to gather Friday July 19, 2024 for a visitation starting at 10:30 with a graveside service following at 11:30 am at Memorial Park Funeral Home and Cemetery 5668 Poplar Ave Memphis, Tn 38119.

The family request in lieu of flowers that donations be made to:
Benton County Senior Center
3501 SE L St.

To my cousins, I'm so deeply sorry for the loss of Aunt Lois. There wasn't a large following of Aunts and uncles on the Brown side, but Aunt Lois and Uncle Jimmy were the best. I know they will be deeply missed. Please know, we have all of you in our hearts and prayers. Love, hugs and prayers for you all. Cheryl Mae and family.
