Eva Miller

JAN 28, 1942 - JUL 27, 2024

Eva Miller died on July 27, 2024, after a courageous battle with arterial disease that she fought with faith and determination. She was born on January 28, 1942, to William and Eva Miller in Memphis, Tennessee.

Eva attended the University of Memphis where she received a master's degree in English and Literature. She taught there and at various high schools for almost 40 years. An expert in Southern studies, Eva often spoke at Ivy league schools on William Faulkner. But her true passion was her church and youth ministry, Knightlife, where she touched young lives through her leadership. She grew especially fond of a close-knit group affectionately known as "The Miller Boys." With immense pride, she considered them her legacy.

Small but mighty, Eva was a faithful servant and loyal friend. She had a passion for dogs, especially Cairn terriers which she owned and enjoyed grooming. She also delighted in bird watching, gospel music, shopping, and trips to the beach.

Eva was preceded in death by her parents, William and Eva Miller, brother William Miller, Jr., sister-in-law Patricia Miller, and nephew William (Buddy) Miller III.

She is survived by her niece Mary Alice (Miller) Callaway; great nephew Liam Callaway, great niece Allie Callaway and dear friends Kathy Bartosch and Henry Miles.

Eva would like for us to appreciate nature, care for animals, enjoy good friends, be kind to others, and trust in God.

Her service will be Saturday, August 3rd at 10:00 a.m. at 2nd Presbyterian Church, 4055 Poplar Avenue, Memphis TN 38111 with reception immediately following. In lieu of flowers, please donate to 2nd Presbyterian Church (<https://www.2pc.org/>).
