I have never experienced Mrs. Maxine without a smile on her face and a bounce in her step. Living just two houses down from her son, Mark, one of my closest friends, I soon realised that I considered her my second Mother. I believe I had eaten dinner at their home more than my own. Her egg salad and fried egg sandwiches were sheer perfection. I remembering missing those days as we grew up and moved on. Those moments will always be a special memory to me. And so will she. She will always hold a special in my heart. Rest in peace, Mrs. Maxine Guthrie. You've lived life to fullest. May God rest your soul. ❤️
