Sally Ann Mickey Peebles

APR 20, 1942 - JUL 28, 2024

Sally Ann Mickey Peebles, 82, passed peacefully into the presence of her Lord and Savior on July 28, 2024. Born on April 20, 1942, Sally was the daughter of the late David A. "Doc" Mickey and Anna Lee (nee Light) Mickey of Paragould, Arkansas. She was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years, Charles Larry Peebles, an infant brother, David Allison Mickey, and nephew, Jonathan Mickey.

She is survived by her children, Charles "Chip" Peebles, Jr.(Dina), Pamela Peebles, and David Peebles, in addition to her grandchildren, Quinn (Mary Larkin), Emma, Christopher, and David. She also leaves behind her sister, Alice Miles (John) and brother, George Mickey (Suelynne), along with nieces Allison Kennedy (Jay) and Amy Compton (Doug).

Sally graduated from Paragould High School, and studied piano performance at both Arkansas State College and the University of Memphis. While at Arkansas State she was a majorette, Honorary Lieutenant Cadet Colonel, and a member of Alpha Omicron PI sorority. A noted beauty, Sally earned the title of Miss Jonesboro and in the same year was the runner-up to Miss Arkansas. Playing the piano was her life-long avocation, and her musical skills were much sought after for church services, weddings, funerals, and many other occasions. No task seemed too hard for Sally, from cooking meals for her sons' football teams, sewing window treatments, earning her real estate license, mastering the latest technology, and even outdoing her husband in an occasional duck hunt. She cheerfully tackled daunting projects such as the Harvest Festival when her children were students at ECS, and made outreach a beautiful priority with her involvement with the annual Christmas Program at her church. Friends were known to frequently stop by her home unannounced, assured of a warm welcome and hoping to find a bowl of her legendary chicken and dumplings or a slice of her acclaimed coconut cream pie. Sally was a longtime member of First Evangelical Church, where many of her cherished friendships were fostered in the Bountiful Blessings Sunday School class.

A service of celebration of Sally's life will be held Saturday, August 24 at 11:30 am at First Evangelical Church, 735 Ridge Lake Boulevard in Memphis, preceded by a visitation at 10am. In Sally Ann and I were friends in college, but lost contact after college only to reconnect in 2009, Sally and I could laugh about most anything except when we discussed the world's problems, which we always solved! When we spoke by telephone (she lived in Memphis and I live in Sherwood) we always discussed our Bible study scriptures before ending our conversation. Sally loved the Lord, her family, and all of her friends. She was one of a kind in musical talent, personality, and a beautiful lady. May she rejoice her healing in the arms of her Lord and Savior.

I have many fond memories of Sally Ann growing up. I graduated one year before her at Paragould High School. It was so good to see her very time we had a class reunion. My prayers are with her family. Joe Wessell

What I remember most about Sally was how musically talented she was. We both had the same piano teacher. She was two years older than myself but she was obviously gifted in piano. I am deeply sorry for her family and especially Alice. Diane Hart Blossom
