Jared Rabun

FEB 20, 1985 - SEP 16, 2024

It is with extreme heartache that we announce the death of our son, Jared Murray Rabun.

Jared was a generous and caring son, brother, uncle and friend. He left this world suddenly on September 16, 2024.

Jared was born to Rob and Libby on February 20, 1985 in Memphis, Tennessee and was proud to be a Memphian.

Jared enjoyed so many things. He loved sports, cooking, drawing and painting, and gardening. Nothing made him happier than to share his vegetables with family and friends...except watching his Memphis Tigers win.

Jared is survived by his father, Rob, his mother, Libby, his sister, Megan, his brother-in-law, Scotty, his nieces Rory and Harley, his nephew, Rowan, and his Ohio aunts, uncle, and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Pamela Cox lit a candle in honor of Jared.

My sincere condolences to the family. Jared was my neighbor and sometimes did yard work for me. I recently just learned of his passing and doing a google search on him because I hadn't seen him in a while. He was always so nice and friendly. Truly going to miss seeing and talking to him (sometimes between the fence when I'd hear him in his yard). Praying for your strength.-The Coxes

I met Jared through my son Clay. He lived with Jared, and I always referred to it as the Frat house. Young men trying to make their way and figure out life. I spent years at the ball field and ended up really caring for all these young men. Jared was always so kind and respectful. Rob and Libby raised a sweet boy. He would send me pictures of his plants and harvest and he was so happy. Gonna miss you and I'm sure my son will have a hard time letting you go. Go crank a few out of the park!! Rhonda Baggett

Saddens me to hear about Jared. He was a genuinely great human being and proud to call him my friend. Enjoyed being his teammate on the softball field. My prayers for Rob and Libby and the family. I pray that God gives you strength and peace during this difficult time.

One of the best guys I've ever had a chance to share the field with. Jared was a great person, a giving person and overall great man. Saddens me to see such a great person leave the earth so soon.

I did not know Jared personally, but always heard good things about him from my son, John Captino, and, of course that beloved Matt Mohler who Jared was so kind and generous with. Will keep you all close in my heart. Rhonda Ciaramitaro

So many yet not enough- I sent you a message telling you I miss your face.... You sent me a picture back.... I miss your infectious smile, your quirky chuckle, your energy when you talk sports and those snowy white arms to give your aunt a hug - I miss your face.
