Marie Dumont Fienup

MAY 25, 1921 - FEB 24, 2025

Marie Dumont Fienup, 103, of Memphis, Tennessee, passed away on February 24, 2025.

Marie was born May 25, 1921 in St. Louis, Missouri to parents Oscar and Augusta Dumont. Marie was a member of the Greatest Generation, surviving the Great Depression and World War II.

As a child, she and her brother showed their business acumen by raising chickens, growing fruits and vegetables, selling and delivering in their neighborhood to help her family. Marie was a graduate of Webster Groves High School in Missouri and Business school. Upon graduation, Marie took her first job as a secretary, at Prince Gardner with no pay to prove she was worthy of employment. It did not take long before her supervisor recognized her determination, work ethic, and perseverance and hired her in a full time position. "Back then, you were lucky just to have a job," Marie would tell as she recalled that important time in her life. She carried that determination and perseverance throughout her life and was grateful for all the Lord had blessed her with.

On June 18, 1949, Marie married the love of her life, Henry, in Webster Groves, Missouri. They raised five children and Marie spent her life as a loving devoted wife and mother. Marie had a love of life, a quiet strength, and a deep devotion to family. She always happily added a plate to the table for unexpected guests. She loved hiking, tennis, the beach and mountains. Marie was generous, thoughtful, loving and kind. She was genuine in her laughter and always wore a smile.

Marie was a faithful member of Buntyn Presbyterian Church from the time she and Henry moved to Memphis. She was a member of the Cherry Estates Garden Club and Buntyn Women's Circle and was an avid participant in the YMCA's water aerobics program well into her nineties.

Marie was preceded in death by her loving husband, Henry W. Fienup, her oldest daughter Barbara Jackson, her parents, Oscar and Augusta Dumont, and her brother Harold J. Dumont.

I wish I had known Marie. She seems like a lovely lady who has been blessed with a long life. I feel like I know her through shared times and memories with her daughter, Margo. I live next door to Bruce, Margo and Jessica. After reading her obituary I recognize many of her traits in both Margo and Jessica. Much love and many prayers for her family. Jane Campbell

Mrs. Fienup was our neighbor and friend growing up. She and her family were always so gracious and kind to me, my sisters, and parents. We loved playing with her children and being with their family. Those are some of my favorite memories as a child. I give thanks to God for her life and her love toward others. May God surround her loved ones with His comfort and grace in the loss of such a strong and lovely lady, God bless. Sincerely, Patricia Cole Hutchins
