Patty Gaines lit a candle in honor of Theodore.

I've been trying to find the right words to honor Mr. Hoepfner and no words can describe what a great man he was. I was so privileged to enjoy his jokes, love and laughter through my friendship with Karen and all her family. We were high school kids hanging around at each others house and giving what all to him and her Mom trying to keep up with our silliness and having a great time doing it. Lifelong friendships are rare and cherished and he and all the family are included in my heart. Of course, one of my favorite bonds was George. George is a poltergeist who lives in my house and Karen's Dad so enjoyed hearing the tales of the stunts George would pull. He will definitely be missed! May he Rest In Paradise and may God wrap his loving arms around your entire family and bring you comfort. Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him O Lord and let Perpetual Light shine upon Him Love you all Patty and George ;-)
