Charles Dallas Kilpatrick, 87, passed away on March 23, 2025, in Germantown, Tennessee.

Born on July 9, 1937 to Lena and Charles Kilpatrick, CD grew up with a passion for sports and a deep commitment to his Lord, family and community. He graduated from Central High School in Memphis in 1955 as a standout athlete before continuing his education at Southwestern at Memphis. CD was a dedicated athlete from an early age. He excelled in baseball, football, track, tennis, handball and golf. His enthusiasm for athletics never waned, and he remained an avid follower of his favorite teams, especially the Memphis Tigers. He held a deep faith, and served at Independent Presbyterian Church. Throughout his life, he remained a loyal friend to many. He loved America and was a true patriot. Most of all, CD was a devoted husband and father. His family will always remember their Big Daddy's sincere smile and kind heart.
