Donna Price Holliday

NOV 15, 1946 - AUG 1, 2025

Donna P. Holliday, 78, of Collierville, Tennessee, passed away on August 1, 2025, at Baptist Hospital Collierville after a brief illness.

Born and raised in Pineville, Louisiana, Donna graduated from Louisiana College and began her career as an elementary school teacher before dedicating herself to her family as a proud homemaker. She was the beloved widow of Michael Holliday, her husband of 33 years, who passed away in 2001.

Donna was the cherished mother of three sons: Brad (Elizabeth), Clay, and Andrew (Sydney) Holliday, and the loving grandmother of eight grandchildren: Davis, Coco, AJ, Natalie, Sammie, Honey, Mickey, and Ryder. She found immense joy in spending time with her grandchildren, always nurturing them with the same love and care she gave her sons.

Throughout her life, Donna embodied grace, kindness, and a quiet elegance. She was a gifted painter, a passionate gardener, and an extraordinary cook, talents she shared generously with family and friends. Her home was a sanctuary filled with beautiful plants and flowers, and a lifetime of wonderful memories.

Donna was deeply involved in her faith and her community. She attended both Life Church and Hope Presbyterian Church, where she built lasting relationships with those around her. For over 20 years, Donna devoted her time to delivering Meals on Wheels for the Memphis Inter-faith Association (MIFA), providing nourishment and companionship to homebound seniors. This act of service was a testament to her boundless generosity and unwavering compassion for others.

Known for her vibrant spirit, Donna remained active well into her later years. Just a few months ago, she hiked with her sons in Sedona, and she continued to water ski, whitewater raft, and surf into her mid-70s. Her zest for life and sense of adventure were unparalleled, and she approached every experience with enthusiasm, curiosity, and courage.
