I worked with Laura for a short time a few years ago. During that time I got to know a beautiful women both inside and out. She had great customer service skills and her kindness shined through and through. She was genuine! I so enjoyed our 2 hour lunches and 1 hour talks on the phone when we were no longer working together. She certainly made an impact on my life and others. She will certainly be missed! Laura, your crown will be heavy in heaven!

I'll always miss her Southern charm and grace. When our friends the Caveners were still Oxford, we would go down to bake Christmas cookies and other goodies. Laura made the best cheese straws and roasted butter pecans!
