David Milton Calvin

OCT 28, 1952 - NOV 21, 2025

David Milton Calvin, 73, of Germantown, TN passed away suddenly on November 21st. He was born in Nashville to Dorris Brown Calvin and Jewel Hall Calvin. David was a lifelong fan of the Tennessee Vols, having graduated from the University of Tennessee with a degree in business. He met Lucie, the love of his life, at UT. They were married for 51 years and have 2 daughters, Kate Calvin Horton (Rusty) and Meredith Calvin Pearson (Gary). Besides his wife and daughters, he leaves grandchildren, Addison Reese Pearson, Eloise Kate Pearson, Brenden Gregory Horton and Shane Ellison Bell (Jack). David built a successful career in Healthcare Financial Management, working many years at Baptist Memorial Hospital and Crittenden Regional Hospital. Over the years of living in Germantown, David gave back to the city as a member of multiple commissions and as a volunteer in many events. David loved to travel with his wife and family. Throughout their life together, David and Lucie traveled to over 25 countries, making memories and friends wherever they went.

Jim Little posted:

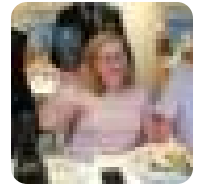

I worked with David at Crittenden Regional Hospital. He was an able worker and often brought joy to my day. I remember interviewing David for the CRH position. Of all the people I interviewed in my career David was the most prepared even with a binder with examples of his work. I was sorry to learn of his passing. Jim Little

We will truly miss David. We met David and Lucie on a Viking River excursion, and we were immediately befriended by them. We found that they were a wonderful couple to travel with and were blessed to accompany them on three additional trips. David possessed a keen sense of humor and infectious laugh. He was upbeat and always willing to join the fun. He was a good man and friend. Ken and Glenda Wilson
