Brenda Kate Robinson

OCT 17, 1950 - JAN 2, 2026

Brenda Kate Robinson was born October 17th, 1950, in Milan TN. She transitioned to heaven peacefully January 2nd, 2026, surrounded by loved ones.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dalton and Cathryn Dowdy as well as a brother, Ralph.

She is survived by her devoted husband of over 56 years, Roger D. Robinson and her daughters Kimberly (Brad) and Carrie (Ashley), along with six grandchildren: Harrison (Leah), Anna Grace, Laura Kate, Jack, Ben, and Jon.

Brenda was raised on a farm where she helped with picking cotton and produce. She gave her heart to Jesus as a young person and played piano at Chapel Hill Baptist Church where her family attended. She and Roger were high school sweethearts and married on June 7th, 1969. Brenda was a life-long learner and hard worker. After graduating from Milan High School, getting married, and attending college, she was hired to do paralegal work with a law firm in Milan, for which she continued to work remotely despite several moves with Roger's company.

She retired in 2014. Brenda was a member of Collierville United Methodist. Always faithful to her local church, Brenda served in children's ministry and in a reading program she developed called Rainbow Readers, which helped community children strengthen their reading skills. An avid reader herself, Brenda read each John Gresham novel, and she read Billy Graham's Decision Magazine, often giving her two sons-in-law subscriptions to help them in their ministries. She and Roger traveled with Roger's company many places and also enjoyed attending the Gaither's Praise Gathering with Roger's Sister, Jean, and her husband, Rick.

Most notably, Brenda was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, always full of encouragement and care, making each child/grandchild know they were loved and cherished. Though her last decade was an intense struggle with cancer and Alzheimer's, she persevered in her faith, blessed her caregivers, and continued to smile for her family. She wants for nothing at Brenda was the sister I never had until she married Roger. I loved her sense of humor and I loved that she and my mom were so close and did art and other things together. Wonderful trips to Gaither events through the years with Roger and Brenda. I'll always feel special because of the day Brenda told me "You've saved my life." Of course the dementia played a big part in that statement but it still made me feel special to know she wanted me to be with her. It was a joy to feel needed. Thank you, Brenda!
