“ Jackie was a wonderful Christian brother. Although knowing each other in high school it wasn't until the early 1970s we became close friends. When I first was getting acclimated to the Christian life Jackie came along, invited me to church, came by to pick me up, encouraged me by his words, and his obvious love for the Lord. He was unbelievably funny, and had an uncanny way of making rather complex things simple. He was always upbeat, and I am sure this went a long way in making him such a success in business. I will very much miss his friendship til we meet again where there is no night, or sorrow, and eternal bliss. I am eternally grateful to have known Jackie, Charlotte, and their dear family.

“ Jackie's brave fight through the ravages of Lewy body disease has ended and he is free, rejoicing in all the glories of Heaven! My words cannot express how proud I am of this brave man for the manner in which he ran this cruel race to the end with both humility and strength. There were times when he would stumble, fall, pick back up, brush off, and head toward the finish line. But he made it to that finish line! Through it all he endured, keeping his eyes on Jesus, his Savior. He has won the race and he is HOME! What a beautiful footprint and lasting influence he left behind for his family and for so many friends along the way! The stories from this amazing husband, father, and friend will live on! We will remember and laugh and share. “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 2 Timothy 4:7”
