“ I will miss my dear, sweet friend. She was always a ray of sunshine, without a mean bone in her body. She lived just up the street, and I would pick her up for Bible Study, and our Friday night puzzle get-together. She, Pat Levine and I would go to eat on occasion and just enjoy each other's company. I remember last Christmas, she wasn't having the family over due to the pandemic, so she invited Pat, George, and me to Christmas dinner. It was such a wonderful day. She was always thinking of others. Heaven has gained a special angel.
My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this time. I'm just sorry I can't be at the service due to recent surgery.

“ Aunt Jane was a super classy lady and she will be missed. We can find comfort in knowing where she is and that we will see her again one day. I can only imagine what she is seeing and has seen.
