

Laura Barton Kimbro

December 21, 1949 - April 4, 2020

Laura Barton Kimbro, 70, went to be home with her heavenly Father after she passed away peacefully at her home in Memphis, Tennessee on April 4, 2020. She was born on December 21, 1949 in Memphis, Tennessee to Wilson and Lola Barton.

Laura is survived by her beloved husband, Jeff Kimbro, her sons, Jeff and Barton, her daughter, Katie, her daughter in law, Sarah, and her grandson, Elias. She was the proudest grandma on earth! In addition to her immediate family, she is also survived by her brother, Wilson Barton II, and her sister Caroline Whittle. She will be remembered for her deep love for her husband, her family, and her even deeper love for her Savior, Christ Jesus. Laura was a member of Second Presbyterian Church and the Sojourners congregational community. Her family, church family, and friends will cherish their memories of her kindness, love for others, sense of humor, and laughter.

While her family mourns, they mourn as those with hope! "For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him" (1 Thess. 4:14)

Given the current national conditions and the family's concern for the health and well-being of others, Mrs. Kimbro will be interred privately at Memorial Park Cemetery. Plans for a memorial at Laura's home church will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of food and flowers, the family would ask that donations be made to St. Jude and Le Bonheur.

“ Jeff, I am so sorry to learn of your loss. Though I never met Laura, I've heard she was a lovely person, and that you and Laura raised a wonderful family. I have so many nice memories of you and the Kimbro family. Marks was a special place to grow up, and I will always feel a connection to lifelong friends like you. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this sad time.

Jeff, words fail me now when I just heard about Laura's passing. She and I had lots of laughs together back in the day. She never said a harsh word about you. You know you are the love of her life. May God bless you, and you family. I know your heart is breaking. Love to you.
