“ Phyllis was such a sweet soul who loved her family deeply and fiercely. I met her when her grandson JonPaul (the apple of her eye) was in my kindergarten class. She was an amazing room grandma, volunteering her time and love to my students and her love and encouragement to me. We grew to be be great friends and stayed in touch even when JonPaul moved on to middle and high school. I know she knew Jesus as her Lord and Savior and that she is celebrating her eternal reward in heaven, reunited with JonPaul. Kevin and Kim...you are in my thoughts and prayers, your mama was one special lady!
